Benjamin Henry Jackson, 16, departed this life on February 12, 2017 in Marion, Montana. Born May 31, 2000 in Englewood, Colorado, Ben was an outgoing, charismatic, great friend to all he encountered. Ben often went out of his way to help those in need, providing comfort, support, and encouragement to his many and varied relationships. Ben loved music, lacrosse, and most of all his family. He had a warm and ready smile, and enjoyed laughing and telling jokes. He was a former student at Heritage High School, Denver Academy, Open Sky Wilderness School, and Montana Academy. Ben is survived by his Parents Nancy and Jeff, his Brother Thomas, his Grandparents Mary and James Grow, Susan Rosewell Jackson, and James Jackson, numerous Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins, and Tilly the Dog. He is much loved and will be forever missed. Donations in Ben's name can be made to the Children's Diabetes Foundation (childrensdiabetesfoundation.org), the Sky's the Limit Fund (skysthelimitfund.org), and the First Presbyterian Church of Littleton Youth Program (littletonpresbyterian.org/give).
