Adolescent Treatment Centers

Three Springs was established in 1985 to provide therapeutic and educational services to adolescents experiencing emotional, behavioral and learning problems. Recognized as a national leader in behavioral healthcare, the company provides an array of residential and outreach services for youths ages 10 to 17.

Students are typically referred by psychologist, pediatricians, psychiatrist, educational consultants, and other professionals. Direct inquiries from parents are welcome and campus tours can be scheduled.

Three Springs operates program locations in Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland.
