Lisa started her career as a Recreational Therapist and has spent many years working with at-risk youth. She returned to school at Southern Utah University to complete a second Bachelor's degree in nursing and then at Eastern Kentucky University to complete a Master's Degree in nursing, specializing in mental health. She is board-certified as a Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner and is licensed in Utah and Arizona as an Advanced Practice Registered Nurse. Lisa enjoys gardening, sewing, and reading, especially listening to audiobooks to multitask. Born and raised in the beautiful Rocky Mountains of Colorado, Lisa loves spending time outdoors with her husband and four children.

Red Hawk Therapeutic Philosophy

We believe each YOUNG person is a unique individual. We respect the contributions they have made and will make in their lives and to their communities. We are sensitive to their social, emotional, intellectual, and physical needs. We believe strongly in providing a physical environment that is safe, clean, healthy, and oriented to the highest quality of life. — Sonny Faaootoa, Executive Director

ACCREDITED BUSINESS

Should you need help finding boarding schools for behavior or youth counseling services, please let us know. Red Hawk RTC specializes in counseling for troubled teens and out of control teens and especially work with Oppositional defiance (ODD), Depression/Anxiety, and adopted girls with emotional disorders. If you are searching for residential treatment centers for difficult girls, troubled youth homes, troubled teen therapy or therapeutic boarding schools, you have found one. As a top therapeutic boarding school, Red Hawk Academy may also be considered a "school for troubled teens". Red Hawk Academy's all-girl school provides troubled pre-teen and teenage girls with counseling and adolescent therapy. The therapeutic residential boarding school for troubled girls provides a structured and supportive environment to address behavioral, emotional, and academic challenges. These programs combine individual and group therapy, life skills training, and academic support to promote personal growth and emotional healing. Common search phrases include "therapeutic boarding school for girls," "residential treatment center for teens," "boarding school for troubled girls," "behavioral support for adolescents," and "emotional healing for teens." The goal is to help girls achieve stability, academic success, and improved mental health in a safe, nurturing setting.
