I, Carol J. Lovejoy, Deputy Register of the York County Probate Court, located at Alfred, Maine, do hereby certify that the excerpt set forth below is a true copy of that part of a Findings, Decision and Order issued in the matter of Cheryl Benton (Petitioner) v. Sharon Terry (Respondent), Personal Representative of the Estate of Joseph J. Ricci, Docket Number 2001-0512(2), dated July 24, 2002, issued by Judge Robert M.A. Nadeau of said Probate Court, insofar as said Findings, Decision and Order affects the real estate and other assets of the following entities:

A. Estate of Joseph J. Ricci;

B. Joseph Ricci Trust of 2000 and any and all Trustees while acting on it's behalf.

Excerpt from the July 24, 2002 Findings, Decision and Order:

1. The Respondent shall pay to the Petitioner the sum of $84,927.90 pertinent to the Petitioner's alimony arrears as follows:

   (a) $76,666.59 within 14 days; and

   (b) The balance of said sum within 30 days.

2. The Respondent shall pay to the Petitioner and her counsel, as reimbursement for the Petitioner's legal expenses reported to the Court to date, the sum of $21,748.25, within 90 days.

3. The Respondent shall pay to the Petitioner when due continuing monthly spousal support payments at the rate of $3,333.33 per month, with the next payment due on or before August 15, 2002.

4. On or before August 1, 2003, the Respondent shall pay to the Petitioner, from the Trust/Ricci Corporation assets, if necessary, a lump sum payment in the amount of $496,962.16, less all spousal support payments made pursuant to paragraph

3, above, in full and final settlement of the Petitioner's alimony/spousal support claim. Alternatively, the Respondent may at any time prior to August 31, 2002 purchase an annuity in favor of the Petitioner, guaranteeing timely monthly payments of all alimony sums due according to the terms of the Petitioner's divorce judgment, as amended.
