Gisha Center - lets lead our teens to a change

The Gisha Center is located in Jerusalem and uses wilderness adventure therapy to help struggling teens become regular members of society. Gisha is the first and only organization in Israel that caters for teenagers at risk religiously orthodox in Israel and has been successful in helping countless youths find their place. Our team is fully qualified and our mentors are highly trained and motivated. Give a Hand the Great Revolution!!! And yes! With your help we can do it!!

Who are we:

The Gisha center (Merkaz Gisha) is a Wilderness & Adventure Center located in Yerushalym, treating teens at risk in Israel by using Adventure and wilderness therapy.

This method has been used around the world and has proven and great success in changing the behavior of teens at risk - and bringing them back to main stream society.

The Gisha center is the first and only place that currently is using this method in the Chareidi community
