Foundation Honors Hyde School

BATH — The Freedoms Foundation of Valley Forge has awarded its George Washington Medal of Honor to Hyde School.

Hyde is one of 20 organizations receiving the award.

The Foundation "annually grants honorary awards to individuals and organizations who have made significant contributions toward strengthening the American way of life," according to a statement released by Hyde.

"The Hyde School Community has been recognized for this award," the statement said, "because of its contribution to American communities through its presentation of the musical drama 'America's Spirit.'
