Mansion To Be Restored

BATH, (UPI) — Restoration to the fire-damaged Hyde Mansion, home of the private Hyde School, will begin in March, according to school officials. Two students were charged with setting a fire last July which damaged five rooms in the 19th century mansion. School officials said an insurance settlement was reached earlier this month and another $100,000 is being raised to replace the uninsured contents of the mansion.

HYDE SCHOOL. BATH.

Restoration of the fire-damaged Hyde Mansion, home of the private Hyde School, will begin in March.

Portland Evening Express.
February 20, 1976. P. 28