Duval Academy

Notice of Privacy Practices

The Duval Academy is a structured, non-secure residential treatment program that serves 28 males, ages 14 to 18, who have been adjudicated. Youth receive individual and group mental health services in addition to substance abuse counseling services. Select youth participate in "Thinking for Change" (T4C), an evidence-based curriculum that addresses cognitive and emotional needs. The program also provides the "Character Counts" curriculum, which addresses life skills, "Impact of Crime," and restorative justice. These curricula help youth understand the impact criminal activities have on individuals, families and communities. All youth admitted should have approved judicial consent permitting off-site activities allowing participation in job searches and community restoration.

Whom Do We Serve?

The youth served by Duval Academy are typically youth with high risk behavioral problems. They struggle with behavioral issues, anger management and positive coping skills to handle stress. Duval Academy provides them with evidenced based services, programming and behavior management that assists them in developing into responsible young men before returning to the community.
