The World Wide Association of Specialty Programs is an association of residential programs designed for teens who are struggling in their home, school, or community. All of the programs in the Association are independently owned and operated. These programs are located in the United States, as well as in foreign sites. Each geographic location provides some unique diversity, benefits and cost options. However, each program must maintain the same high standards, follow a common program model, provide a series of effective personal growth seminars for its students and provide its clients with a warranty.

In addition, parents from all of the programs are invited to attend adult seminars and support meetings sponsored by the Association, held in various locations throughout the United States. These are just a few of the reasons the Programs in the World Wide Association stand apart from all others.
