The Wayback Machine - https://web.archive.org/web/20010217110655/http://cedar-mountain.com:80/staff.htm

The leadership of The Academy at Cedar Mountain has nearly 100 years experience in developing and directing private specialty schools and businesses. In addition to the key personnel listed below, numerous full-time educators, activity directors, and support staff are employed by The Academy.

Jodi Tuttle, Head
Since she began teaching high school nearly 40 years ago, to her more recent involvement with private schools and specialty programs including Wasatch Academy, Spring Ridge Academy, SunHawk Academy and the American West Language Institute, Jodi Tuttle has been a strong force education. She has a Masters in Secondary Education and holds a Principal Certificate. Jodi is widely known and respected among members of the Independent Educational Consultants Association (IECA), for whom she has hosted numerous tours. She has extensive experience developing and directing English as a Second Language programs.

Sheryl Farr, Dean of Admissions
Born in the English-speaking colonies of Chihuahua, Mexico, Sheryl Farr has lived an equally diverse life. As a parent board member of Youth Educational Services, a residential treatment center, she recognized the need for such schools. In 1996 she helped found SunHawk Academy, a residential treatment center in St. George, Utah, where she served as Admissions Director. Her involvement with The Academy at Cedar Mountain began when parents, students, and educational consultants expressed the need for a genuine and affordable transition school. Sheryl is fluent in Spanish.

Thomas Fuller, Director of Marketing
Directing the Admissions Department at The Academy enables Tom to apply his educational background and experience on a daily basis. He holds an MBA from Arizona State University, a Master of International Management from Thunderbird (The American Graduate School of International Management), and a degree in Computer Science. He has received one of the largest graduate fellowships in ASU's history in addition to various other academic and professional awards. Tom has worked and studied in both Latin America and Europe, is fluent in Spanish, and has extensive professional experience, which includes being a founding partner in a strategic accounting and consulting firm.

Thomas C. Hughes, Director of International & Business Education
Tom Hughes is dedicated to expanding our students' understanding and perception of the world in which they live. He holds a degree in Economics and a Master of International Management from top-ranked Thunderbird. Having lived and worked in Germany, and presented free-market economy seminars in various countries of the former Soviet Union, he has a keen understanding of the skills needed to succeed in our fast-paced, ever-changing world. His presence at The Academy ensures that our students are taught the practical skills necessary to interact in today's job market, and the impact that each student can have on a local, national, and international level. He has instructed college-level courses and is fluent in German.

Bruce S. Hughes, CPA, Controller
Bruce brings more than 30 years of business development, financial planning and teaching experience to The Academy. In addition to being a licensed CPA in both California and Utah, he holds a degree in Accounting, and a Masters in Taxation from the University of Southern California. He is a faculty member of Southern Utah University's Department of Business, and has presented free-market seminars for the Krieble Institute in Moscow, Siberia, and the Ukraine. Bruce's dedication to education, combined with his business knowledge, further strengthens The Academy at Cedar Mountain and its ability to provide the highest possible academic and student life experience.

(c) 1999-2000 The Academy at Cedar Mountain