Internationally respected and recognized, The Latham School, a program of Latham Centers has offered highly regarded, progressive educational and residential treatment services on Cape Cod since 1970 to students with a wide range of developmental delays, behavioral and emotional disorders, learning disabilities, mental health diagnoses,complex multiple diagnoses. Latham's service population is smaller than others of its kind however we are known for treating students with a complex array of special needs, including: Prader-Willi Syndrome, Pervasive Developmental Disorder, Posttraumatic Stress, Bipolar Disorder and Reactive Attachment Disorder. Within our beautiful setting, we bring together highly-skilled professional teams of experts including educators, social workers, physical, occupational, speech therapists, nurses, consultants, and residential and vocational counselors. We continually evaluate each student's progress and adjust our personalized services to meet their changing needs. The program includes a summer academic and activity component, with a vacation week scheduled before and after the reagular academic year. Instructional modifications and accommodations are implemented according to MCAS, the Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education's Comprehensive Assessment System. This includes the MCAS-Alt, the alternate assessment for students with disabilities.
