Lava Heights Academy provides a welcoming and affirming environment for young females (assigned at birth) ages 12-17 who are struggling with mental and behavioral issues, which may have made it difficult to remain at home, in school, or their community. We are a residential treatment center offering comprehensive and therapeutically informed art programs covering all four arts modalities – music, drama, art, and dance and movement.

Lava Heights Academy is nestled among the black lava rock bluffs at the gateway to Zion National Park. Our campus was designed to be comfortable as well as functional – designed from the ground up as a therapeutic environment for healing through the arts while prioritizing safety and health.

Learn More

Admissions

We accept females who exhibit emotional and/or behavioral problems preventing them from functioning at their fullest potential in their home or community. Referrals can be initiated by parents, mental health professionals

Learn More

Clinical

We strive for a multi-faceted, holistic, and integrated approach to treatment. One of our main goals is to help teens heal from past traumas, learn healthy coping skills, and build healthy relationships.

Learn More

Academics

Tailored academic plans remediate academic weaknesses, improve study skills, and bring students up to or beyond grade level. Students develop the academic foundation and motivation necessary to progress and achieve lifelong success.

Lava Heights Academy Campus

Student Life

Our campus is found among the black lava rock bluffs at the gateway to Zion National Park. By creating a campus inspired by Tuscan Artistry, we are able to utilize the arts to provide a way for students to communicate and overcome complex feelings, fears, and struggles when words alone are not enough.
