LIAHONA TREATMENT CENTER'S MISSION STATEMENT

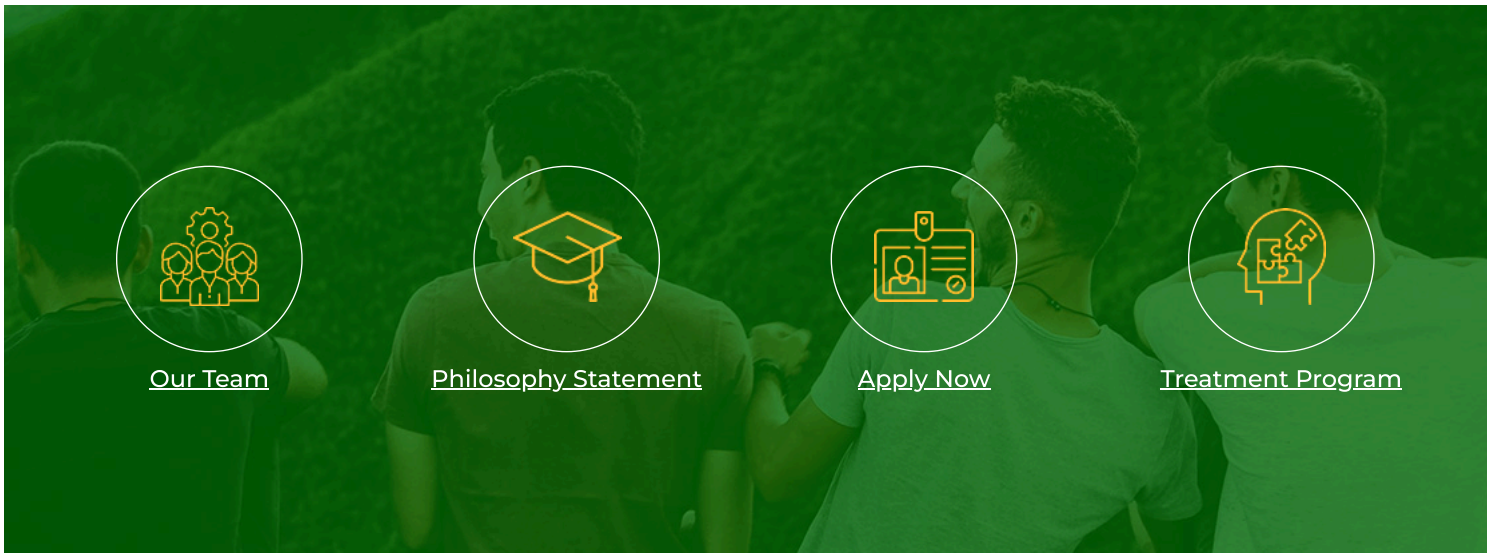

Provide professional, holistic treatment to adolescents and their families in a healthy, and skillful setting so that they may if they choose be happy and healthy.

RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT CENTER FOR TROUBLED

BOYS

Liahona Treatment Center has been helping troubled boys and their families since 2001 and is among the top residential treatment centers in the nation. Liahona's therapeutic program is based on the practical philosophy of a keen balance between "love and self-discipline and self-accountability". At Liahona, we believe that boys thrive in an environment of "love, self-discipline, and self-accountability". Moreover, we believe that boys respond to the help offered when they feel loved, respected, and responsible. At Liahona Treatment Center, the balance between unconditional love (respect) and accountability (discipline) has been demonstrated to be the perfect combination. Boys respect those who expect "greatness" from them and these boys tend to live up to expectations, both good and bad. Boys appreciate those who will hold them accountable; sending the message, "you have what it takes to be great". Over the years we have restored thousands of troubled boys and their families through "love and discipline". Our proven results speak for themselves.

Parent Testimonials

It is not an easy decision for a parent to place a child in someone else's care and custody. After conducting two weeks of personal research, I chose Liahona as the best facility for my son's needs.

OUR MESSAGE TO PARENTS OF TROUBLED BOYS

You are not alone and we can help! If your son is self-destructing: lying, skipping classes, defying authority, depressed, angry, abusing drugs and alcohol, and hanging out with the wrong kids, he is most likely struggling at home and at school, resulting in troubling behavior. Contact us because we can help you. If your troubled teen is acting out, emotionally immature, and making one poor choice after another, we have the solution. It's as simple as this: speak with some of our former or current families and find out exactly how effective we are. We will help you to contact our former or current students and/or families and we encourage you to listen to their stories of success and restoration. If you are a parent needing help with your troubled teen, please take action now and give us a call at 1-855-587-1416. Our goal is to provide parents of troubled teens with therapeutic support and academic services to help their struggling boys.

ASSESS YOUR STRUGGLING TEEN'S BEHAVIOUR

How do I know if my child needs a Residential Treatment Center for troubled boys? Are you unsure or unaware of the signs and symptoms of troubled teens? Let us help you assess and verify your child's specific situation. Allow our professional Admissions Counselors to help you determine the best course for your family.

OUR MESSAGE TO PARENTS OF TROUBLED BOYS

Liahona Treatment Center is a fully licensed treatment facility that offers multiple levels of care, including Residential Treatment Care, Day Treatment Care, and Outpatient Treatment to treat mental health illnesses and issues effectively. Our mental health treatment team consists of a board-certified and licensed medical doctor, a board-certified and licensed primary psychiatric care provider, state-licensed Registered Nurses, and state-licensed clinical therapists. All staff members of the treatment team work in conjunction with one another to provide a consistent continuum of care that can address all aspects of implementing a proper individualized treatment plan for each patient. Individual, family, and group therapy sessions are combined with support groups to provide positive mental health treatment and rehabilitation. Our medical team addresses all physical or mental issues or illnesses that may be affecting the patient's mental health. Each aspect of the treatment team works in harmony to ensure the psychological, medical, and psychiatric team members work towards effectively treating the issues of each patient in restoring them to physical, mental, and emotional health which can be sustained outside of the treatment facility.

Why Traditional Therapy Doesn't Always Work for Troubled Teens

Let's be honest: You've tried. You've sat in waiting rooms. You've found a licensed therapist, rearranged your calendar for weekly sessions, and maybe even hoped this would be the turning point. But nothing changed. Or maybe it got worse. You were told therapy was the answer. But now, you're asking yourself the question nobody warned [...]
