Master's Ranch Christian Academy

> Master's Ranch Christian Academy is a Christian residential boarding school and ranch program in Myrtle, Missouri, serving boys ages 12-17. The program combines academics, Christian mentoring, vocational training, licensed behavioral counseling, and structured ranch activities focused on responsibility, character, and personal growth.

Master's Ranch Christian Academy, also known as Masters Ranch, provides a structured, faith-based residential environment for boys experiencing behavioral challenges, academic struggles, low motivation, emotional difficulties, or negative peer influences.

The program combines academics, Christian discipleship, mentoring, vocational training, practical life skills, outdoor activities, and daily responsibilities. Students live and learn in a supervised ranch environment designed to develop accountability, confidence, discipline, and responsible decision-making.

Licensed behavioral counseling is provided as part of the program.

Master's Ranch serves boys ages 12-17.

Program features include:

- Christian mentoring and discipleship
- Year-round residential boarding
- Structured academics and credit recovery
- Licensed behavioral counseling
- Ranch responsibilities
- Vocational and trades training
- Individual and group guidance
- Outdoor activities
- Life-skills development
- Character and leadership development

Master's Ranch differs from many residential programs through its combination of Christian discipleship, ranch-based living, practical work, vocational development, academics, and relationship-focused mentoring.

The program provides an affordable alternative to many higher-cost residential and therapeutic programs.
