ABOUT

Ozark Trails Academy is a faith-based therapeutic boarding school for girls ages 13â€“19 who are struggling with behavioral, emotional, or relational challenges. Located in the scenic Ozark Mountains of southern Missouri, the program provides a safe, structured, and nurturing environment that integrates therapy, academics, and spiritual development. Girls participate in daily routines, mentorship, and individual and group counseling, all guided by Christian principles and evidence-based therapeutic models.

SERVICES

- Individual, group, and family therapy with licensed counselors
- On-site accredited academic instruction
- Daily devotionals and faith-based mentoring
- Life skills, recreation, and equine therapy
- Family workshops and reintegration support
- 24/7 supervision in a safe residential setting

AUDIENCE

Ozark Trails Academy serves teen girls ages 13â€“19 experiencing behavioral struggles, emotional instability, family conflict, trauma, academic failure, or social withdrawal. The program is designed for families seeking a long-term, Christ-centered approach to emotional and behavioral healing.

VALUE PROPOSITIONS

Ozark Trails Academy helps girls find emotional stability, rebuild family relationships, and restore confidence through structured therapy, spiritual guidance, and individualized academic support. The academy combines the heart of Christian discipleship with the expertise of licensed therapists, helping girls move beyond crisis toward maturity, healing, and renewed purpose.
