ABOUT

River View Christian Academy is a fully accredited Christian residential boarding school for teen girls (ages 12-17) who have experienced academic or behavior challenges. Located near Austin, Texas on a 45-acre ranch campus, River View offers a structured, safe environment with clear boundaries, responsible accountability, and high emotional support.

SERVICES

- Year-round enrollment with personalized education, credit recovery, and life skills training.
- Boundaries-based structure with routine, rewards, and consequences.
- High staff-to-student ratio promoting personal mentorship and relational support.
- Optional parent-centered post-graduate home support.

AUDIENCE

Parents, guardians, and counselors seeking a structured Christian boarding school solution for teen girls struggling academically or behaviorally.

VALUE PROPOSITIONS

- Personalized support in a smaller-scale, home-like campus.
- Clinical focus on structure and boundaries, not therapy or treatment center models.

- Flexible academic model supporting credit recovery and school catch-up.

DIFFERENTIATORS

- Strong emphasis on student accountability (through rules + reward system).
- Not a clinical or therapeutic boarding program, but highly structured and relational.
- Integration of ranch-life responsibility (e.g. garden, animal care).

ORGANIZATION TYPE

Private, fully accredited Christian residential boarding school for girls ages 12-17.
