ABOUT

Sunset Bay Academy is a long-term American-focused residential treatment center in Baja California, serving teens from America, ages 12 to 17. The faith-based program is designed to help struggling adolescents overcome emotional, behavioral, and academic challenges in a safe, supportive environment. Set in a peaceful coastal location, the academy offers a structured blend of accredited academics, licensed therapy, spiritual development, and life skills training. Students follow a personalized path of growth focused on emotional healing, academic success, social development, and character building. Daily routines include community service, recreation, mentorship, and counseling, all guided by a team of caring professionals committed to each teen  s transformation. With a strong emphasis on personal responsibility and rebuilding family relationships, Sunset Bay Academy provides the structure and encouragement young people need to move forward with purpose and confidence. Families from across America trust Sunset Bay Academy to provide long-term, life-changing care that helps teens rediscover their potential and prepare for a healthier, more hopeful future.
