They help teens who are losing their way—threatening their future, and hurting families.

When teens begin to lose their way—undermining their education, damaging relationships, and putting their future at risk—families can feel helpless and uncertain about what to do next. Teen Challenge Schools exist to provide hope, healing, and a clear path forward.

Teen Challenge is an affordable year-round program that welcomes boys and girls from across the country into a nurturing, faith-based environment. Students are guided toward a renewed sense of purpose, personal responsibility, and a vision for their future.
Surrounded by mentors and peers who encourage growth, they develop the tools to stand strong in every area of life.

Teen Challenge believes that every young person has a God-given destiny. Whether a child's future lies in leadership, business, or service, they are prepared to build meaningful lives grounded in faith, integrity, and perseverance.

Teen Challenge schools are nonprofit, affordable residential programs for teens struggling with behavioral, motivational, emotional, or academic challenges. While some programs include therapeutic staff and others do not, all provide structured, gender-specific environments with 24/7 mentorship, personalized academics, character development, and spiritual growth. Designed to help difficult teens build lasting life skills, Teen Challenge schools offer a cost-effective alternative to many for-profit residential treatment programs and therapeutic boarding schools, preparing students for successful adulthood. Contact Best Choice to learn more about available programs and costs.

Disclaimer: Unless indicated otherwise, boarding schools listed here are not licensed as clinical treatment centers, and they may not employ licensed therapists. For youth with mental disorders or who may be a danger to themselves or others, always seek treatment by licensed mental health professionals.
