Three Springs of Sierra Vista

Who we are

Three Springs of Sierra Vista, located in Arizona, is an intensive residential treatment program for boys ages 12–17. The program offers two distinct therapeutic services: One provides treatment for boys who are experiencing severe emotional, behavioral and addictive disorders, while the other provides treatment for boys who exhibit inappropriate sexual behaviors.

The program is licensed by the Arizona Department of Health Services (ADHS) and the Office of Behavioral Health Licensure (OBHL), and accredited by the Joint Commission on the Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO)
