

SEEN N HEARD: Continued from 27

ext 26, announced the Hunter School is accepting enrollments for the ESY Summer Program, which runs from July 7 – August 15, 2008. The Hunter School specializes educating students with ADD, ADHD, Asperger's Syndrome and related behavioral and emotional issues.

MISSION MOUNTAIN SCHOOL RESPONDS

(May 1, 2008) Colleen Harrington, Assistant School Head for Mission Mountain School, Condon, MT, 406-754-2580, submitted a letter to Congressman Miller regarding the hearings held on HR 5876, with the purpose of addressing inaccuracies in the testimony. The response can be found online.

ANTHONY GERACI SAYS 'THANK YOU'

(May 1, 2008) Anthony Geraci, 281-253-3264, Founder of San Cristobal Ranch Academy, Fulshear Ranch Academy, Transitions of Galveston Island, and former COO of Solacium, submitted a Letter of Thanks to the industry for 10 wonderful, supportive years of service.

NEW CLINICIAN AT LOGAN RIVER ACADEMY

(May 2, 2008) Larry Carter, Executive Director at Logan River Academy, Logan, UT, 435-755-8400, announced Shannon Kegerries has joined the team as a clinician. Shannon has a Masters of Counseling from Pittsburg State University and worked with families in a Truancy Diversion Program for at risk teens.

WHITE MOUNTAIN KAYAK & CLIMBING CAMPS

(May 5, 2008) Ben Mirkin, Director of Summer Programs, The White Mountain School, Bethlehem, NH, 603-444-2928 X72, announced both their Kayak Camp and Climbing Camp for 12-16 year olds will be July 12 – July 19, 2008.

SUMMER PROGRAMS AT EXPLORATIONS

(May 5, 2008) Penny James, Owner and Director of Explorations, Trout Creek, MT, 406-827-3863, announced this summer they will again conduct several programs in their Montana Big Sky Summer Adventure, including both a girls' and a boys' summer Wilderness Adventure Course starting June 23, and a 30-day Boys High Adventure Challenge starting July 5.

HALVERSON ADMISSIONS DIRECTOR AT 2N

(May 5, 2008) Brad Reedy, Director of Second Nature Wilderness Program, Duchesne, Utah, 866-205-2500, announced Leah Halverson has been appointed to—and accepted—the Admissions Director position at Second Nature Therapeutic Programs. Halverson has been with Second Nature for eleven years, four as part of the admissions team.

BECKET STUDENTS BECOME DJ FOR A DAY

(May 6, 2008) Julie Gaffey of Becket Family of Services,

Orford, NH, 603-359-5951, announced two residents from Becket House at Pike recently had the chance to play "DJ for a Day" at WLTN radio station (96.7) in Littleton, NH. The goal of the trip was to give the boys a taste of what life is like to run a radio station.

NEWS AT OPI

(May 7, 2008) Anne LaRiviere, Director of Admissions for OPI (Optimum Performance Institute), Woodland Hills, CA, 888-558-0617, announced Lisa Bove, LCSW, MDiv, a medical social worker at Kaiser Permanente Hospital, joined the team of therapists at the Optimum Performance Institute. Lisa worked as an individual, family and group psychotherapist and received her Masters Degree at USC. Anne also announced OPI hosted Film Maker Aaron Rockett, who visited OPI to discuss his newest documentary "The Fixer: Afghanistan Behind the Scenes".

NEW COMPOSITION OF STICC BOARD

(May 7, 2008) John D. Reuben, President and Founder, SAVING TEENS® In Crisis Collaborative (STICC), Sudbury, MA, 877-249-1336, announced Tamara Ancona, Sharon Levy, Grant Liebersberger and Scott Sells will join Leslie Goldberg, Adam Goldberg and Lon Woodbury as members of the STICC Board of Advisors.

COASTAL MOUNTAIN GOLF TOURNAMENT

(May 7, 2008) Kelley White, Executive Program Director for the Coastal Mountain Youth Academy, San Juan Capistrano, CA, 949-498-7042, a day school for struggling teens, announced their first Annual Caddyshack Golf Tournament will be June 9, 2008, at the San Juan Hills Golf Club.

NEW LEAF APPRECIATES FRIENDS OF FAMILIES

(May 7, 2008) Robbi O'Kelley, MSW, LCSW, of New Leaf Academy of Oregon, Bend, OR, 877-820-5050, submitted a letter regarding services at Friends of Families Foundation's loan process.

TURNABOUT/STILLWATER PARTNERS WITH HOMEWARD BOUND

(May 8, 2008) Peter Henrie, South Jordan, UT, 866-359-4600, announced Turnabout/ Stillwater Academy has partnered with Homeward Bound, to assist families with aftercare services and the transition process of students returning home. Each family is given a Turnabout therapist and a Homeward Bound transition specialist, who work together to create an individualized plan for the student. In addition, families have access to the Family Bridge, an internet based program used for communication between the family and support team.

OK CORRAL GATHERING SET FOR JULY 18

(May 9, 2008) Greg Kersten, Founder of Equine