And

thanks to a friend, here is the most complete listing I have seen to date. It is my understanding that these have all been associated with WWASPS or a family member involved in WWASPS. I have not had time to review all of these sites myself, and am presenting them "as is" from a 3rd party source. I will make no claim to the complete accuracy of this information until I can verify them all myself. (That might be awhile though, as you can see from the size of the list lol) But I am very grateful to the person who sent this to me, as there was obviously a lot of time compiling it.
